President: Verified that everyone received last month's minutes. A big thanks to everyone who participated in the annual Clean-up Day. Accomplishments were: fixed the west end of the clubhouse, filled a large hole in the field, stained all tables, bleachers, and new end of the clubhouse, and made any necessary repairs to the fence.

Vice Pres.: Additional thanks to everyone who helped during the Annual Clean-up Day.

Secretary: Dave created a flyer for the May 19th Electric Fun Fly. It has been posted to the website and will be emailed to all members and surrounding clubs. It is also posted on the Events page of the website.

Treasurer: Please contact Dan for details. Raffle tickets for the Fun Fly are printed and will be handed out to those who want them after the meeting. Others will then be mailed.

Field Marshall: Nothing

Safety: Not Present

Unfinished Business Dan replenished some supplies in the first aid kit, which is located behind the pin board on the left side.

Dave has made arrangements with Austintown Hobby for the plane grand prize. Also, he ordered the pilot prizes from Luke's RC. On Saturday, May 18th, Dan will set up the tent. Dan will cook and take care of getting the food, with Roger's help if needed. We are all set for the event.

New Business Field has not yet been treated; they are supposed to come any day. Dan asked members, based on the looks of the field today, do we need the weed and feed? Motion made by Mitch; seconded by Cliff, and passed to NOT get weed and feed; we will get the grub treatment only for right now.

Porta-john has been pumped and is ready for the Fun Fly.

New member, Dave Barson, was voted unanimously into the club. Welcome, Dave.

Show and Tell Darrel brought some laser kits that he purchased recently; 3 kits for $33. Anyone interested in purchasing, please contact Darrel for information.

50/50 Raffle $ 8 Won By Emil; $ 8 to the club pizza fund.

Closed: Motion to adjourn by Darrel; seconded by Mitch; meeting adjourned at 7:17 p.m.

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, June 12th at the Club Field.
